ALMA MATER

(Words by James Church Alvord)

Where the sleepy, silver bayou
Gleams among the pines,
Watching o'er the throbbing city
Alma Mater shines.

(Chorus) Forward, forward, Centenary —
Time and tide may fail,
But our hearts shall love thee ever —
Centenary, Hail!

Like a wave the mighty city
Surges 'round thy feet.
Guide it, train it, teach it wisdom,
Alma Mater sweet.

Green the boughs that rustle 'round
thee
On thy stately crest;
Greener is our mem'ry of thee —
Alma Mater blest.

CENTENARY COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

Established 1825

Office of the President

August 1992

Dear Centenary Student:

It is my special pleasure to welcome you to Centenary College for the 1992-1993 academic year. The beginning of a new year creates a sense of anticipation in each of us. I hope that you will find the days and months ahead both challenging and rewarding.

This student handbook has been carefully planned and prepared to help you when you face problems and uncertainties. The handbook is designed to inform you of the unique services, resources, opportunities and persons available on our campus.

While you are a student here, I hope that you will contribute your own suggestions on how to make Centenary an even better college. Centenary exists for just one purpose--you, the student. The education of students is our central mission. So, I welcome your ideas about the ways we can increase the effectiveness of your college.

Sincerely,

Kenneth L. Schwab
President

CENTENARY COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

Established 1825

Dear Centenary Student:

Welcome to Centenary! On behalf of the Centenary Student Government Association, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Centenary for the 1992-93 academic year.

Whether you are a new or returning student, the Student Government Association is your voice at Centenary. The Senate is responsible for addressing student issues and concerns about faculty, administration, and staff. The SGA is here to serve you, to insure that your rights as students are protected, and that your voice is heard in the College decision-making process.

In order for our SGA to be truly effective and representative, it is our duty as students to get involved. Student participation is essential to effective student government. There are many opportunities to get involved through our committee system, media, and various organizations. I encourage each of you to be involved in the processes and to fully utilize the resources of the Student Senate.

If you are interested in serving the Centenary community, let us know how we can help. Our office is located on the first floor of the Moore Student Union Building. Remember, you can make a difference because students get action!

I am proud and very excited to welcome you to campus for what promises to be an exceptional year for Centenary students.

Sincerely,

Andra M. Roy, President
Student Government Association

Student Services

◆ BOOKSTORE

The Bookstore, located in the basement of Moore Student Center, has a variety of items ranging from textbooks and supplies to laundry detergent and novelty items. Any book in print may be special ordered. Personal checks up to $50.00 may be cashed with a service charge of twenty-five cents added. The Bookstore will accept VISA, American Express, MasterCard and Discover credit cards.

Hours: 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday.

◆ CAMPUS CONVOCATIONS

The college has set aside Thursdays from 11:00 a.m.-12:00 noon as a time for the entire campus community to gather for various purposes. On occasions these gatherings are academic convocations, such as the President's Convocation or Founder's Day. Religious programs and lectures are also held at this time period. All students and staff are encouraged to attend.

In order to preserve this time for a gathering of the entire campus community, both the faculty and Student Senate have designated that no other meetings should be scheduled at this hour unless there is no official College function planned.

Concerts and lectures are held at other announced times.

◆ CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

The Career Development Center, located in Room 105 of the Student Union Building offers a variety of opportunities for students. There is a career library that has books on career ideas and specific careers and also books and videos on designing a resume, interviewing, and job searching. There is career testing available and also the opportunity to work on Sigiplus, a computer program for career decision making.

The employment ideas and opportunities are numerous: Summer jobs at resorts, summer seminars and Study Abroad programs, part-time jobs, internships and full-time employment. In the fall semester the Career Development Center sponsors "The Career Fair On-Campus Recruiting Program", which provides students that chance to meet and network with current employers.

Through the internship program, students find out whether or not a field is right for them, or if they can further define their interests within a certain area. The on-the-job skills and insights students gain provide an important link between classroom theory and real life practice. The people one meets and works for during their internships can become invaluable career contacts, giving one a professional "network" while still in school.

Start opening the door to your future now; stop by the Career Development Center or call them at 869-5042.

◆ CHAPLAIN OF THE COLLEGE

The Chaplain of the College serves as a clergyman to the campus community. He fills several of the pastoral roles of counseling, visitation in times of illness or other crisis, leadership in worship and various forms of religious education ministry. If a student or staff member desires a clergyman or worship service of his own religious tradition or denomination, the chaplain will assist him/her in referral.

The chaplain welcomes opportunities to know and visit with students and staff, especially in instances of particular problems. He is on call at any time of specific need.

◆ COUNSELING – ACADEMIC

The Advisor is responsible for assisting students in all areas of academic life. The advisor is responsible for assisting students with schedules and a degree plan which must be filed no later than the first semester of the junior year in the office of the Registrar. The office is located in Hamilton Hall, Room 113 and the telephone number is 869-5146.

The Dean of the College assists the student in the area of academic affairs. The Dean's Office is located in Hamilton Hall, Room 217, and may be reached by telephone at 869-5104. At the time of admission to the College, the student is assigned a faculty advisor who is available for advice in academic matters.

◆ COUNSELING – PERSONAL

Personal counseling is available from several sources on campus. The Dean of Students, the Director of Career Development, the Chaplain, and some members of the Psychology Department are available to assist students with short-term counseling and to refer for long-term counseling.

◆ DEAN OF STUDENTS' OFFICE

The role of the Dean of Student's office is to provide service and support for students assuring an environment most conducive to learning. Students are encouraged to address problems, concerns, complaints or recommendations to any member of the staff. The Dean of Student's office is conveniently located in Room 127 of Hamilton Hall.

◆ DINING HALL

Centenary College has two student dining rooms and two private dining rooms. All resident students are required to purchase meals in the Dining Hall. Meal tickets are not transferable. Neither food nor cafeteria supplies may be taken from the Dining Hall at any time. The Cafeteria provides 20 meals per week. You may choose at registration either a 14 or 20 meal per week meal ticket per semester.

Students who require special dietary needs and are under the care of a physician should present their prescribed menus to the Nutritionist/Food Service Manager. If the prescribed meals cannot be provided, the students may make alternate arrangements with the Dean of Students. Working students are not ordinarily exempted from purchasing a meal ticket. Students who are practice teaching and cannot eat their lunches on campus Monday through Friday may have their meal tickets prorated with written statements of their needs from their major area professor. These statements must be presented to the Dean of Students before or on registration day.

The Dining Hall hours of service are listed elsewhere in this book. The schedule is flexible at special times such as Finals Week.

During Exam Week, Food Service provides such snack items as tea, coffee, hot chocolate, fruit and cookies.

◆ FINANCIAL AID

Scholarships, grants-in-aid and all federal aid programs are administered by the Director of Financial Aid.

Students are encouraged to visit the office of Financial Aid if they have any concerns or problems with their awards.

Veterans' benefits are administered by the V.A. Representative in the Office of Financial Aid.

The Anna Ruth Nuttall Small Loan Fund, a fund established by the family and friends of the late Dr. Anna Ruth Nuttall, Assistant Professor of Bible and English at the college from 1945 until her death in 1952, is available for students in most cases. Students should apply to the Business Office. Ordinarily the amount loaned will be a maximum of $25.00. Loans are payable within fifteen days. Special provisions permit College authorities to lend larger sums from the fund when an emergency arises.

◆ HEALTH SERVICES

A small infirmary on campus is staffed by a physician and a nurse. This is a "first contact" or "sick-call" program that will meet the majority of student needs for medical care. If the physician makes a referral for further testing or to a specialist, these expenses must be covered by the student's (or parent's) insurance. There is a $10.00 per semester infirmary fee that all full time undergraduates pay at registration for this program.

If the need arises, Centenary College students may contact the Rushing-Risinger Clinic at 2020 Centenary Boulevard. If the student feels unable to do this, he should ask the Resident Director or the Resident Assistant to make the call from the student's room so that questions may be asked and answered.

Each student always has the right to choose his own doctor and a full list of local physicians and surgeons may be found in the classified section of the telephone directory. Students may wish to ask their home physicians for specific referrals in Shreveport.

All fees related to off-campus medical services are handled directly between patient and doctor. All full-time students are covered by a secondary insurance policy during the academic year which covers accidents only and is coverage in excess of insurance the student may have through his/her parent(s). The policy pays a maximum of $5,000. Insurance claim forms for students and parents may be obtained in the Business Office and should be filed within thirty (30) days following the accident.

◆ JUKE BOX CAFE (SNACK BAR)

The snack bar located in the Student Center is known as the "Juke Box Cafe." It has a refreshing 50's atmosphere, providing hot grilled items, ice cream and assorted snacks. Your meal ticket can be used there at posted hours of operation. The grill closes each day at 9:00 p.m.

◆ LIBRARY

The Magale Library of Centenary College offers a variety of modern facilities and services which make it the information and study center of the campus. The total collection of approximately 180,000 volumes includes books and periodicals for class work, personal research, and recreational reading. The general book collection is arranged on open shelves according to the Dewey Decimal Classification System. The Circulation Desk, the Reference Collection, and the Current Periodical Browsing Shelves are located on the south end of the main floor. The Reserve Book Collection is located behind the Circulation Desk. The Pierce Cline Memorial Room on the second floor houses the rare book collection and special collections of Centenary, Louisiana, and Methodist materials. Interlibrary loan service provides for the borrowing of needed materials not available in our Library.

Study facilities include four-place tables, individual free-standing carrels, and study rooms. Seating capacity is 303. A collection of materials in microfilm and the necessary readers are located on the first floor. A reader-printer is available for use and prints are ten (10) cents per page. A photocopy machine is available for making copies for personal use at a cost of ten (10) cents per copy. Please ask the Circulation Desk for assistance in making either photocopies or prints on the reader-printer. Please observe the copyright warning posted on the copy machine.

IBM PC's are available for student use to those who have paid the $20 computer lab fee or who are in the M.B.A. program. A well-trained library staff is ready and willing to assist with reference questions and in the selection and location of materials. Do not hesitate to ask for help.

The Library Handbook, Keys to the Magale Library, provides a detailed guide to the services and facilities of Magale Library. Copies may be obtained at the Reference Office.

The Library Art Gallery, located in the main foyer, is used for rotating exhibits. These exhibits are usually changed once a month. The permanent art collection is on display on the first and second floors.

◆ LOST AND FOUND

Items left in the Library may be claimed at the Library Circulation Desk. If items are left elsewhere, contact the Dean of Students Office or Campus Security.

◆ MAIL

The Campus Post Office is located in the Moore Student Center. During fall and spring semesters the Post Office is open from 8:30-4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. All student mail, except for large parcels, is delivered to student mail boxes located on the main floor of the Student Center. Mail is delivered once a day; sorting is completed and delivery made to the boxes by 11:00 a.m. Box numbers and combinations are issued to all fulltime undergraduates on registration day during the fall semester. Students keep the same mail boxes during their years of residence on campus. Students not assigned box numbers at registration should check with the Post Office personnel as early as possible for an assignment. Box rent is not charged. It is the student's responsibility to give the Campus Post Office written notification of any change of address to ensure proper forwarding of mail. Notification should be given prior to departure from campus. Otherwise, mail will be returned to sender.

◆ NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Co-ordinated by the Dean of Student's staff and an ad hoc committee, New Student Orientation is conducted by the Student Foundation and required of all freshmen and transfer students entering Centenary College for the first time. New Student Orientation occurs just prior to the start of the school term in the fall and spring semesters.

◆ RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Opportunities for worship and religious education on an ecumenical and non-sectarian basis are offered to the campus.

Campus worship services are planned with the particular needs of a college campus in mind and frequently reflect experimental modes of worship.

Convocations of a theological nature are held in Kilpatrick Auditorium or Brown Memorial Chapel on some Thursdays at 11:10 a.m.

◆ WILLSON LECTURES

The Willson Lectureship has been established on the Centenary campus by Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Willson of Floydada, Texas. This annual lectureship brings to the campus distinguished speakers in the fields of religion and higher education.

◆ SECURITY

Centenary College employs nine security officers. In emergency situations, security officers may be contacted by dialing 869-5000 (5000 on campus). You will be talking to them over a two-way radio system.

◆ STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND INTRAMURALS

The Student Activities and Intramurals office provides students an opportunity to get involved in many extracurricular activities. The office provides information on all student organizations and intramural sports. Students are also given a chance to make extra money by being an official/referee for intramurals. If you would like to get involved at Centenary College or if you would like to make some extra money — stop by the Student Activities and Intramurals office in Room 101 of the Student Union Building.

◆ STUDENT UNION BUILDING

The Moore Student Union offers ping-pong, pool, and electronic video games. Many special activities are planned during the year by the Student Activities Board working in conjunction with the Student Activities Director.

In addition to the Post Office (located on main floor) and Bookstore (located in basement), the Moore Student Union houses offices for the Student Activities and Intramural Director (room 101), the Conglomerate (campus newspaper), the Yoncopin (yearbook), KSCL (campus radio station), Pegasus (literary magazine), Student Government Association (room 102), and the Career Development Office (room 105). The Juke Box Cafe (snack bar) is located on the main floor.

Policies & Procedures

◆ EXPECTATIONS OF CENTENARY COLLEGE FOR ITS STUDENTS

Each person enrolled as a student in Centenary College is expected to conduct himself/herself in a manner which is acceptable to an ordered society and in a manner which is compatible with the function of the College as an educational institution.

Social rules and regulations at Centenary have as their objective the development of students as moral, intelligent, responsible members of an academic community and, extensionally, of the nation. To accomplish this, it is necessary that the rules themselves reflect true morality, intelligence, and responsibility by calling for high standards of self-discipline and habit formation in all personal and social practices which might be listed.

STUDENTS WHO ARE ENROLLED IN THE COLLEGE ARE SUBJECT TO THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE COLLEGE WHILE ON COLLEGE-OWNED OR COLLEGE-CONTROLLED PROPERTY. IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE STUDENTS TO BECOME FAMILIAR WITH THIS HANDBOOK AND THE VARIOUS DOCUMENTS TO WHICH REFERENCE IS MADE. ANY STUDENT FAILING TO ABIDE BY COLLEGE REGULATIONS IS SUBJECT TO DISCIPLINARY ACTION BY THE AUTHORIZED BODIES AND OFFICIALS OF THE COLLEGE.

◆ STATEMENT OF STUDENTS' RIGHTS, FREEDOMS, AND RESPONSIBILITIES (WITH MINOR CHANGES FOR THE PARTICULAR SITUATION AT CENTENARY)

Centenary College exists for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students, and the general well-being of society. Free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the attainment of these goals. As members of the academic community, students should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment and to engage in a sustained and independent search for truth. The freedom to learn depends upon appropriate opportunities and conditions in the classroom, on the campus, and in the larger community. Students should exercise their freedom with responsibility. The responsibility to secure and to respect general conditions conducive to the freedom to learn is shared by all members of the academic community.

The guidelines which follow are expressions of attitudes only and should be understood in the context of the whole educational mission of the College, including as relevant its educational activities and practices that pertain outside as well as within the classroom. They should be interpreted in such a manner as to give full consideration to the rights and concerns of all segments of the academic community, rather than to concede absolute autonomy to the student sector, when matters of proper concern to the academic community as a whole are involved.

I. FREEDOM OF ACCESS TO HIGHER EDUCATION

Within the limits of its facilities, Centenary College is open to all students who are qualified according to its admission standards. The facilities and services of the College are open to all of its enrolled students.

II. IN THE CLASSROOM

The professor in the classroom and in conference should encourage free discussion, inquiry, and expression. Student performance should be evaluated solely on the basis of academics and not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards.

- A. Protection of Freedom of Expression: Students should be free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study and to reserve judgment about matters of opinion, but they are responsible for learning the content of any course of study for which they are enrolled.
- B. Protection Against Improper Academic Evaluation: Students should have protection through orderly procedure against prejudiced or capricious academic evaluation. At the same time, they are responsible for maintaining standards of academic performance established for each course in which they are enrolled.
- C. Protection Against Improper Disclosure: Information about student views, beliefs, and political associations which professors acquire in the course of their work as instructors, advisors, and counselors should be considered confidential. Protection against improper disclosure is a serious professional obligation. Judgments of ability and character may be provided under appropriate circumstances, normally with the knowledge or consent of the student.

III. STUDENT RECORDS

Transcripts of academic records should contain only information about the academic status of the student and such action by the College, as suspension or expulsion for academic or disciplinary reasons which affect the student's eligibility to register at the College. Information from counseling or disciplinary files should not be available to unauthorized persons on campus, or to any person off campus without the express consent of the student involved except under legal compulsion or in cases where the safety of persons or property is involved. No records should be kept which reflect the political activities or beliefs of students. Administrative staff and faculty should respect confidential information about students which they acquire in the course of their work.

IV. STUDENT ACTIVITIES

In student activities, certain standards must be maintained if the freedom of students is to be preserved.

A. Freedom of Association: Students bring to the campus a variety of interests previously acquired and develop many new interests as members of the academic community. They should be free to organize and join those organizations which promote these interests.

1. The membership policies and actions of a student organization usually are determined by vote of only those persons who hold bona fide membership in the College community.
2. Affiliation with an extramural organization should not of itself disqualify a student organization from institutional approval.
3. Faculty advisors are required and each organization is free to choose its own advisor. Faculty advisors may advise organizations in the exercise of responsibility, but they should not have the authority to control the policy of such organizations.
4. Student organizations may be required to submit a statement of purpose, criteria for membership, rules of procedures, and a current list of officers. They should not be required to submit a membership list as a condition of institutional recognition.
5. Campus organizations, including those affiliated with an extramural organization, should be open to all students without respect to race, creed, or national origin.

B. Freedom in Inquiry and Expression

1. Students and student organizations should be free to examine and discuss all questions of interest to them, and should be free to express opinions publicly and privately. They should always be free to support causes by orderly means which do not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the College. At the same time, it should be made clear to the academic and the larger community that in their public expressions or demonstrations, students or student organizations speak only for themselves.

2. Students should be allowed to invite and hear any person of their choosing, in keeping with the educational objectives of the College. Those routine procedures required by the College before a guest speaker is invited to appear on campus should be designed only to insure that there is an orderly scheduling of facilities and adequate preparation for the event, and that the occasion is conducted in a manner appropriate to an academic community. The College control of campus facilities should not be used as a device of censorship. It should provide for and make clear to the academic and larger community that sponsorship of guest speakers does not necessarily imply approval of, endorsement of, or agreement with the views expressed, either by the individual, sponsoring group, or institution.
- C. Student Participation in College Government: As members of the academic community, students should be free, individually or collectively, to express their views on issues of institutional policy and on matters of general interest to the student body. Students should have representation on various committees of the College. The actions of the student government within the areas of its jurisdiction should be reviewed through orderly and prescribed procedures.
- D. Student Publications: Student publications are a valuable aid in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion and of intellectual exploration of the campus. They are a means of bringing student concerns to the attention of the faculty and the College authorities and of formulating student opinion on various issues on the campus and the world at large.

Centenary College, a publisher of the student publications, may have to bear the legal responsibilities for the contents of the publications. In the delegation of editorial responsibility to students, the College must provide sufficient editorial freedom and financial autonomy for the student publication to maintain its integrity of purpose as a vehicle for free inquiry and free expression in the academic community.

The editorial freedom of student editors and managers entail corollary responsibilities to be governed by canons of responsible journalism, such as the avoidance of libel, indecency, undocumented allegations, attacks on personal integrity, and the techniques of harassment and innuendo. As safeguards for the editorial freedom of student publications the following provisions are necessary.

1. The student press and radio should be free of censorship and advance copy approval, and its editors and managers should be free to develop their own editorial policies and news coverage.
2. Editors and managers of student media should be protected from arbitrary suspension and removal because of student, faculty, administrative, or public disapproval of editorial policy or content. Only for proper and stated causes should editors and managers be subject to removal. The Media Committee is responsible for the appointment of editors or managers and paid staff and should be the agency responsible for their removal.
3. All College published and financed student publications should explicitly state on the editorial page that the opinions there expressed are not necessarily those of the College or the student body at large.

V. OFF-CAMPUS FREEDOM OF STUDENTS

- A. Exercise of Rights of Citizenship: College students are both citizens and members of the academic community. As citizens, students should enjoy the same freedoms of speech, peaceful assembly, and right of position that other citizens enjoy, and as members of the academic community they are subject to the obligations which accrue to them by virtue of this membership.

Faculty and administrative officials should insure that College powers are not employed to inhibit such intellectual and personal development to students as is often promoted by their exercise of the rights of citizenship both on and off campus.

- B. College Authority and Civil Penalties: Activities of students may upon occasion result in violation of law. In such cases, College officials should apprise students of sources of legal counsel and may offer other assistance. Students who violate the law may incur penalties prescribed by civil authorities and while College authority should not be used merely to duplicate the function of general laws, College action shall not be precluded merely because the student has violated the civil statute. Only where the College interests as an academic community are distinct and clearly involved should the special approval of the College be assessed. The student who incidentally violates College regulations in the course of his off-campus activity, such as those relating to class attendance, should be subject to no greater penalty than would normally be imposed. College action should be independent of community pressure.

VI. PROCEDURAL STANDARDS IN DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

In developing responsible student conduct, disciplinary proceedings play a substantial role secondary to example, counseling, guidance, and admonition. At the same time, the College has a duty and the corollary disciplinary powers to protect its educational purpose through the setting of standards of scholarships and conduct for the student and through the regulation for the use of College facilities. In the exceptional circumstances when the preferred means fails to resolve problems of student conduct, proper procedural safeguards should be observed to protect the student from unfair imposition of serious penalties.

The administration of discipline should guarantee procedural fairness to an accused student. Practices in disciplinary cases may vary in formality with the gravity of the offense and the sanctions which may be applied. The jurisdictions of student judicial bodies, the disciplinary responsibilities of College officials and the regular disciplinary procedures, including the student's right to appeal a decision are clearly formulated and appear in this publication. Minor penalties may be assessed informally under prescribed procedures.

- A. Standards of Conduct Expected of Students: The College has an obligation to clarify those standards of behavior which it considers essential to its educational mission and its community life. These general behavioral expectations and the resultant specific regulations should represent a reasonable regulation of student conduct but the student should be as free as possible from imposed limitations that have no direct relevance to his education. Offenses should be as clearly defined as possible and interpreted in a manner consistent with the aforementioned principles of relevance and reasonableness. Disciplinary proceedings should be instituted only for violations of standards or conduct formulated with significant student participation and published in advance through the student handbook and College catalogue.
- B. 1. Except under extreme circumstances, premises occupied by students and personal possessions of students should not be searched unless appropriate authorization has been obtained from the Dean of Students. The search document should specify the reason for the search and the object or information sought. The student should be present, if possible, during the search. For premises not controlled by the College, the ordinary requirements for lawful search should be followed.

2. Students detected or arrested in the course of serious violations of College regulations, or infractions of ordinary law, should be informed of their rights. No form of harassment should be used by College representatives to coerce admissions of guilt or information about conduct of other suspected persons.
3. Nothing herein contained shall be regarded as detracting from the traditional plenary powers of the President of the College and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the President of the College may on his own initiative and at his own discretion immediately and without any procedural requirements whatsoever suspend or expel the student, or otherwise suspend or terminate his right to be present on the campus, or to attend classes. Such action is subject to review by the Judicial Affairs Committee, but the status of the student pending final action shall remain that in which he has been placed by the President.

◆ PROCEDURES FOR ESTABLISHING AND MODIFYING EXPECTATIONS FOR STUDENTS

Centenary College has established a channel of communication through which students should proceed in order to either establish or modify the expectations the College holds for them.

The channel for modifications goes through the Student Senate to the Student Services Committee. From this committee the channel continues through the faculty to the President of the College.

The diagram on page 19 depicts this channel of communication.

Role of the Student Government Association

Any student who believes the expectations which Centenary College holds for him are unrealistic may approach the Student Senate in person or through a senator and express his convictions. If successful, he may engage the cooperation of the Senate in presenting his aims to the Student Services Committee. Additionally, the Student Senate may bring before the Student Services Committee, without outside suggestion, such additions or modifications of Centenary College expectations as it may deem appropriate. Technical aspects of the Student Senate and its procedures are stated in its constitution and bylaws.

Role of the Student Services Committee

It is the role of the Student Services Committee to receive all proposed additions and modifications to the expectations Centenary College holds for its students, to review the contents of these proposals, and to develop and present a recommendation to members of the faculty for their decision.

The Chairman of the Student Services Committee is then responsible for communicating the decision of the faculty to the President of the College for his decision. Technical aspects of the Student Services Committee and its procedure are stated in its guidelines.

In the event that the President of the College does not approve a proposal from the Student Services Committee and the faculty does not choose to consider this proposal, it becomes the responsibility of the Student Services Committee either to accept the decision of the President of the College as final or to negotiate directly with him until a proposal is submitted which meets his approval. The dotted line in the diagram on this page reflects this negotiation channel.

Role of the Faculty

The faculty receives from the Student Services Committee those proposals in need of faculty consideration. It is the role of the members of the faculty to approve or reject the contents of these proposals and to communicate the faculty decisions to both the Student Senate and to the President of the College through the Student Services Committee.

Role of the President

The President of the College, after a review of each proposal submitted to him, will make a decision regarding the acceptability of that proposal. Traditionally, the President does not establish rules and regulations governing student life on campus. Rather, he more often acts as a reviewing agent or authority, rarely using his veto power. He should, in this role, understand and interpret the points of view of students, faculty, and Board of Trustees, and with sound counsel aid them in establishing and maintaining a program of student life that works for the benefit of the entire College community. His decisions are communicated to the chairman of the Student Services Committee who will in turn notify all parties.

◆ GENERAL COLLEGE REGULATIONS

ADDRESS CHANGE

It is the responsibility of each enrolled student to provide the College with an up-to-date and current local and permanent mailing address. An address change that occurs anytime after the registration of the student for the current semester should be reported to the Dean of Students' office. The student will complete an Address Change Form.

AUTOMOBILES ON CAMPUS/VEHICLE REGISTRATION

All students must register their vehicles. Vehicle registration should be completed at the time of registration for course work; there is a $25.00 fee for resident students and $10.00 fee for commuters. Part-time students pay reduced fees. In order to register a motor vehicle, you will need to present a valid driver's license, evidence of liability insurance and license plate number of your vehicle. Vehicle registration does not guarantee a specific parking place or parking lot.

Campus vehicle registration policies, regulations, and fees are specified in the Student Handbook and in other official College publications for the campus community. Failure to comply will result in referral to appropriate judicial bodies or authorized College officials.

FOOD SERVICE

All students who live in the college residence halls, or Greek houses are required to purchase meal tickets and to comply with College policies governing access and use of the Cafeteria.

ID CARDS

ID cards are non-transferable. If the ID card is found in the possession of a person other than the owner, the card will be confiscated. The card is issued at the time of registration for classes. The first ID card is free; however, there is a $5.00 charge for replacing a lost ID card. At the end of each semester, resident students should turn their ID's in to their residence hall staff, non-resident students should turn their ID's in to the Assistant Dean of Students. When a student graduates or leaves for any other reason, the card must be turned in to the Business Office. Failure to return the card at that time may result in the withholding of transcripts.

KEYS

Under normal circumstances, a student should have in his possession only one key to his residence hall room. Unusual circumstances may require students to have other College keys; however, in such cases, permission must be obtained from the responsible staff member who will order, deliver and later collect the key.

Students are not permitted to duplicate any key to any lock or door on campus.

Students are not permitted to enter any residence hall room other than their own without the express permission of the resident(s) of the room. The resident(s) giving the permission must notify the staff member that it is permissible for a particular person to enter the room in the resident's absence.

All keys to any College lock, door or other property must be returned no later than the end of the spring semester. Students who fail to return the room key to their residence director or who fail to return other College keys to the specified staff member at the end of each semester will either be billed or will have deducted from their room deposits the cost of labor and materials associated with the installation of a new lock and the making of new keys.

POSTERS AND PUBLICITY

All fliers shall be posted on bulletin boards and walls only. Fliers must be identifiable to source. Any banners, posters or other publicity larger than a flier may be posted outside of bulletin board areas so long as these are up for a period of no longer than ten days. Authority to put up this larger publicity must be obtained through the Publicity Chairman of the Student Government Association.

Any damage done to College property by the display of posters or any cleaning that needs to be done as a result of publicity materials littering the campus will be paid by the source of publicity.

In the event of a suspected violation by an individual or organization, any student or College official may submit a report to the Judicial Referral Board. The deciding judicial body may impose a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars. Any fines collected will go to the general SGA fund.

Any on-campus publicity by off-campus or non-official campus organizations must first be approved, and must also follow the above regulations, where possible.

Special areas for and methods of publicizing College activities will be determined by the Student Senate.

A resident director or another College official must be contacted for authorization to hang banners for homecoming, elections, etc.

All publicity must be removed by the sponsoring group within three days following the publicized event .

Salesmen are not permitted to solicit on the campus without written permission from the Dean of Students. Students, as well as staff, should ask any solicitor for proof of written permission from the Dean of Students. Should a residence group want a salesman to present or demonstrate a particular product in the residence lobby, the Residence Hall Council should notify the Dean of Students. This same procedure also covers solicitation of donations.

Students desiring to sell products in order to earn money toward their education or College organizations conducting fund raising projects may apply to the Dean of Students for special permission to sell products.

PREPARATION WEEK

The College has set aside the week before final exams in both the spring and fall semesters as a special time to review academic work and prepare for final exams. It is designated as PREPARATION WEEK. The following policy and requirements are designed to help students concentrate on their studies by reducing the usual multitude of college activities that demand time and attention.

As of 8 a.m. on the first day of Preparation Week, no papers, tests or additional work (beyond completion of courses) may be assigned. Lab tests may be given during Preparation Week. Class assignments made earlier in the semester may be due during Preparation Week. Residence halls will observe 24 hour quiet time beginning at 10:00 p.m. the day before the first day of Preparation Week. A student who violates quiet hours is subject to a minimum $25.00 fine per incident. The quiet hour policy extends through finals week.

As of 8 a.m. the 4th day of Preparation Week and continuing through exam week no college-sponsored or affiliated groups may hold meetings or programs that involve students and/or require student attendance. Judicial bodies acting on official business may meet during this time.

On the Saturday of Preparation Week, from 6:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight, there will be a suspension of these requirements (other than residence hall quiet hours) allowing students and their organizations opportunities for recreational activities. At midnight, Preparation Week requirements resume and continue through exam week.

The Student Services Committee will not consider petitions for exceptions to policies governing Preparation Week.

RESIDENCY

All full-time students are required to live on campus except students living with their immediate family (parents, grandparents, aunts or uncles), married students, divorced students, and students who are 22 years of age or older before or by mid-semester of the time they wish to live off-campus. The following exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Dean of Students at least 15 days prior to registration:

1. Students who are two-year veterans of military service.
2. Students whose employment requires off-campus living (letter from employer required).
3. Students whose physicians state they are required to live off campus for medical reasons or whose prescribed diet cannot be met by the Food Service (letters from physician and Cafeteria manager required).
4. A specified number (to be determined by the Dean of Students) living in fraternity housing. Those students living in fraternity housing must purchase meal tickets.
5. Dual residence (having a residence hall room and another residence dwelling) is not permitted.

Where there are empty rooms in the residence halls they will be made available to students on a seniority basis at the rate of a private room. However, single occupancy is not guaranteed any student at any time and is to be considered a privilege rather than a right. Room rent is not refundable.

Room assignments are made according to the following steps: (Full time students have priority)

1. Housing applications are mailed to all resident students. Questions include the specific room requested and the preference for private or double occupancy. The student has the opportunity to state such preferences as a roommate who does not smoke, one who wants music while studying, etc.
2. Requests are met in accordance with the following priorities, in this order; present occupancy, classification with seniority privileges and date of receipt of application.
3. Double occupancy requests have priority over single occupancy requests.
4. After the deadline for returning applications, assignments are made on a first application received basis although the returning students maintain priority over incoming students until June 1.
5. Private rooms are offered as long as they are available with priority given to seniority classification coupled with the return of the application prior to deadline.
6. When assignments have been made, students are given a room contract which must be signed and returned to the Assistant Dean of Students within a stated time period.

7. Students whose roommates withdraw before registration will be assigned another roommate. Personal choice will be honored whenever possible.
8. Students whose roommates leave after registration will be given the option of taking a new roommate, moving in with another student who needs a roommate, or paying for single occupancy. The Dean of Students staff will assist the student who faces these choices. Extenuating circumstances may be given consideration.

A room change request is considered first as a counseling situation and it is hoped that students will learn to settle their differences and live together. A change is made only with approval from the Dean of Students' office. A $10.00 room change fee will be assessed each student making a room change after the fifteenth class day of the semester.

The College officials responsible for the administration of residence halls have the authority to initiate, at their discretion, revocation of housing contracts and/or appropriate disciplinary action.

RESIDENCE HALL INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

The Dean of Students' Office is responsible for the operation of the residence halls. This office provides counseling to students, makes room assignments, selects and trains the residence hall staff members and processes reports of alleged student misconduct. The resident directors and resident assistants communicate with residents regarding the College and its services. The resident assistants are trained to be peer counselors and advisors. It is also the responsibility of the residence staff (as well as any student) to report residents whom they observe to be in violation of College expectations.

Custodial services include cleaning of bathrooms and halls and the emptying of hall trash receptacles daily on weekdays. It is the responsibility of each student to keep his/her own room clean, to report maintenance problems and damages to furnishings to the resident director or resident assistant. Only in the case of emergency and in the absence of any staff member should the individual student call for maintenance services. The number to call then is 5286 between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

Access to Residence Halls

All non-residents (including guests of residents) must enter and exit through the lobby entrance of residence halls. Members of the opposite sex must be signed in, escorted, and signed out in accordance with College policy.

Appliances

No appliance with exposed heating elements and no multiple socket plugs may be used in any residence hall room. Students are authorized to maintain a microwave oven and a small refrigerator in their room.

Back Doors

With the exception of the honors hall, the back doors to the women's buildings are locked and put on an alarm system for security purposes. Use of doors other than main entrances (front doors) from 8:00 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. is not permitted.

Barbells

At no time are there to be barbells or any weightlifting equipment in the residences. There is a weight room in the Gold Dome and one in Haynes Gymnasium.

Dress and Conduct

Dress and conduct should be in good taste at all times.

Food

Public health regulations prohibit the storage of food in bathroom areas. No uncovered containers of food may be stored in residence hall rooms. No cooking is permitted in a residence hall room. Cooking is permitted in designated kitchen areas. Cooking even in these areas may not be a substitute for the meal plan. No perishable food should be left in the residence hall during vacation periods.

Lobby Piano and Television

The pianos may not be used during strict quiet hours and at no time may they be used for practice. The television may be used quietly at any time as long as the viewer extends courtesy and thoughtfulness for others. The residents of each hall have priority over other persons concerning television use in their respective residence halls.

Lobby Visitation

Students are allowed to have guests of the opposite sex in their residence hall lobby twenty-four hours a day. After the official visitation hours, a guest in a lobby must be in the company of his/her host(ess). Overnight sleeping in the lobby area is prohibited.

Musical Instruments

Musical instruments are not to be played in the residence halls except with the express permission of the resident director or the vote of the students who might be annoyed by noise. A student vote must be reported to the residence staff by a member of the Residence Hall Council.

Opposite Sex Visitation

All students 18 years of age and older may opt to have opposite sex visitation in their residence hall rooms. Visitation hours are 12:00 noon to 12:00 midnight Sunday through Thursday and 12:00 noon to 2:00 a.m. Friday and Saturday. All guests of the opposite sex must be escorted from and to the lobby by the host(ess). It is the responsibility of the host(ess) to complete the official sign-in/out procedures. Opposite sex guests must not be left in rooms without the presence of their host/hostess. Students who request no visitation are assigned rooms accordingly to assure their privacy. Residents under 18 years of age may have opposite-sex visitation with parental permission. These regulations as well as all other residence and campus regulations apply to all residence halls.

Overnight Guests

Students may have overnight guests of the same sex; there are, however, some regulations to be observed.

1. All overnight guests, even one staying in the room of the host or hostess, must be registered with the resident director.
2. All guests must comply with our residence and campus regulations; the student host or hostess will be responsible for any infraction by his/her guest(s).
3. Guests should plan to come on weekends, if at all possible.
4. Guests should stay on campus no longer than three nights without specific permission from the Assistant Dean of Students.

Pets

Students are not allowed to keep pets of any type in residence halls.

Residence Dues and Fines

All resident students may be asked to pay residence hall dues and, when applicable, fines. Failure to comply can result in disciplinary action.

Residence Hall Closing

Residence halls are officially closed at the conclusion of each academic semester or session and at other times designated in the official college calendar. It is expected that all students will vacate the residence halls during these times. In emergency cases students may be allowed to remain in their rooms if staff personnel is available and permission is granted by the Assistant Dean of Students. During the times the residence halls are officially closed, the opposite-sex visitation policy is suspended. Any opposite sex visitation at these times will be considered a violation of College regulations.

Residence Hall Quiet Hours

Each resident hall must determine quiet hours at the beginning of each year unless specific hours are stated in the residence hall constitution. Students who are inconvenienced by noise should make a request to the offenders. If noise continues, students should talk with a resident assistant and/or report the persons involved in the noise-making to the Residence Hall Council. Misconduct report forms are available from any resident director.

Roof Areas

The roof areas and all equipment rooms are off limits to all except those authorized for inspection, repair or work reasons.

Room Changes

A request for a room change is normally considered as a counseling situation. The residence staff and the Dean of Students staff are concerned and ready to help. A fee of $10.00 will be assessed for any change occurring after the fifteenth class day of the semester.

Room Deposit

A $60.00 room deposit is required of all residents and is retained as a general housing deposit as long as the student resides on campus. The room deposit will be refunded at the end of the last semester a student attends the College, provided all financial obligations have been met. All damage charges assessed to a student prior to that time will be billed to his regular account. Charges for loss or damage of equipment or defacement of any community used area such as lounges, recreation rooms, corridors or bathrooms may be assessed equally against the residents of the area. Occupants may be charged for damages to individual rooms in the event the vandal(s) is/are not apprehended or known to the College.

Room Furnishings

No furniture, including mattresses, may be moved from one room to another without permission of the resident director. For example, a room should have only one mattress and box spring per resident. College furniture may not be physically altered in any way. Contact (adhesive-backed material) paper should not be applied to any surface (furniture, walls, floors, baskets, etc.) in residence halls. Ceiling hangings and partially obstructed doorways are not allowed in residence rooms.

Room Inspection

At Centenary, you have the right to privacy in your own room. However, on occasions, the residence staff and/or other College officials have the authorization to enter rooms and make visual checks in order to meet emergency situations, to make routine maintenance or fire hazard inspections, to maintain minimum health and safety standards and to enforce pertinent regulations. To enter a room and inspect a student's personal belongings requires a letter signed by the Dean of Students. This search application will specify the reason for search and the object sought. Every effort will be made to have the student present during the search. However, if the student is not available, the search will be conducted.

Each semester residence staff members inventory all residence rooms and furnishings. This detailed inventory includes previous damages and the amount, type and condition of the furnishings of inventoried rooms. Suitemates shall be equally responsible for the bathroom and hall of their suite. Re-evaluation shall be made by the staff when room changes occur, during breaks and during the semester on notice. The residence hall staff, on notice to the student, may check a room at any time for health, safety or maintenance reasons. These checks are visual only. A letter from the Dean of Students is required for entry to a room for a search and seizure inspection.

Safety and Health Measures

It is against the regulations of the College and civil law to tamper with fire equipment of any kind and each student should accept personal responsibility for reporting anyone who does so.

Every student should accept personal responsibility for helping to prevent false fire alarms. A series of false alarms may well encourage a situation in which an alarm pulled for an actual fire or other emergency goes unheeded. Also, everyone should recognize that some students are seriously upset by the sudden interruption of their sleep, particularly by a sound which spells danger.

Students should empty their wastebaskets whenever they are full; an overflowing wastebasket is a fire hazard. The emptying of ashtrays into wastebaskets should be done with great caution.

Electric circuit breakers are sized for the number of outlets provided to prevent fire. Plug adapters used to increase the number of outlets in a room should be used with caution particularly when more than two appliances are being operated simultaneously.

The burning of candles and other substances such as incense is not allowed in the residence halls. Such items have been the cause of many fires.

Any student who detects an odor of burning should report this immediately to the resident director. Students' rooms should be kept reasonably clean. Piles of soiled clothing, uncovered food and spills not cleaned up are health hazards.

Students should report illness to the RA who should also keep the resident director informed. Proper care may prevent the spreading of illness.

Telephone and Television Cable Service

Each residence hall room is equipped with a modular telephone jack providing service for rotary, pulse output, or tone output instruments. Touchtone output instruments are recommended. Commercially available long distance services may be contracted on an individual student-by-student basis. Students may not receive collect calls billed to the telephone numbers assigned to student rooms nor may these numbers be used for third number billings.

Television cable service can be contracted on an individual student-by-student basis. Each residence hall room is properly wired for television cable service.

Theft

The College is not responsible for theft of personal property from residence hall rooms or elsewhere on College property. The resident directors have Missing Item(s) Report Forms which the student should complete when belongings are missing.

Wall Hangings and Decals

Posters and pictures may be hung on the walls only with the use of thumb tacks. Damages will be assessed for use of any material which defaces the walls or ceilings. Ceiling hangings are a fire hazard and therefore may not be used. Decals may be used on glass surfaces only, but must be removed when the student vacates the room. Decals may not be applied to wooden or painted surfaces or lamps.

◆ SPECIFIC AREAS OF CONDUCT FOR WHICH ANY STUDENT IS SUBJECT TO DISCIPLINARY ACTION

1. Alcoholic Beverages

Use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages in or on any College property. (See number 18 below)

2. Civil Law

Any conduct which is in violation of city, state, and/or federal laws.

3. Inappropriate Conduct

Conduct that leads to embarrassment or indignity to others or to the College, while on College property or at College-sponsored activities.

4. Drugs

Use, possession, or distribution of narcotics, stimulants, depressants, mind-expanding or other dangerous drugs, except as expressly permitted by state and/or federal laws. (See number 18 below)

5. Failure to Cooperate

Failure to cooperate with the request of College officials (faculty, administration, resident staff, and Residence Hall Councils) in the performance of their duties.

6. False Information

Willfully and knowingly furnishing false information to the College.

7. Firearms, Explosives

Use, possession, or distribution of firearms, explosives, incendiaries or any other weapons in or on any College-owned or College-controlled property. The student should be aware that such items as firecrackers, bottle rockets and the like are included in the term “explosives.”

8. Honor Code

Violation of the Honor Code of Centenary College.

9. Misuse of College Materials

Forgery, alteration, or misuse of College documents, materials, or records.

10. Misuse of Identification Materials

Forgery, alteration, or misuse of identification materials or records.

11. Misuse of Property

Theft of, damage to, or illegal possession of any College-owned or College-administered property and property of a member of the College community or any campus visitor and any acts which deface or destroy College buildings and/or grounds.

12. Obstruction of Proceedings or Activities

Obstruction, disruption, or hindrance of teaching, administration, disciplinary proceedings or other College activities, including public service functions or other authorized activities on College property.

13. Organizations, Public Expression

Violation of College policies or campus regulations concerning the registration of student organizations and the use of College facilities.

14. Physical Abuse

Physical abuse or the threat of physical abuse to any person on College-owned property, or at Centenary-sponsored or supervised functions, or conduct which threatens or endangers the health, safety or well-being of any such person.

15. Residential Rules

Violations of rules governing residence in College-owned or

College-controlled property, including failure to pay residence hall dues or fines on time. (failure to attend meetings, etc.)

16. Unauthorized Entry

Unauthorized entry into or use of any College facility or property.

17. Visitation

Failure to adhere to the hours during which a member of the opposite sex may visit in a student's room. These hours are 12:00 noon to 12:00 midnight Sunday through Thursday and 12:00 noon to 2:00 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

18. Drug-free Schools and Communities Act

In complying with The Drug-free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Public Law 101-226), a student accused of violating the alcoholic beverages or drugs policies will be subject to disciplinary proceedings with the guarantee of procedural fairness. Circumstances of the policy violation will affect the variance in formality with the gravity of the offense and sanctions which may be applied. Disciplinary proceedings may produce results ranging from dismissal of charges to the assessment of sanctions to include warning, probation, suspension, or expulsion.

◆ PROCEDURES OF CENTENARY COLLEGE FOR INSURING DUE PROCESS

Centenary College is dedicated to the proposition that personal responsibility is one of several characteristics necessary to a college learning experience. It is anticipated that the majority of the students, when told of the expectations of the College, will choose to abide by them. Inevitably, however, there will be those students who choose to do otherwise.

In order to insure that due process is afforded those who choose to act contrary to these expectations, the College has established a judicial system the form of which is depicted in the chart on page 19. Technical aspects of students' rights, freedoms and responsibilities are covered in the statement by that name.

The Honor Court is responsible for hearing cases of suspected academic misconduct. Technical aspects of the Honor Court and its procedures are stated in its constitution.

The Judicial Referral Board is made up of the Dean of Students, the Chairman of the Judicial Board and the Chairman of the Judicial Affairs Committee. An alternate for each of these persons will be chosen so that he may act in the absence of the primary officer. The Chairman of the Judicial Referral Board is the Chairman of the Judicial Affairs Committee. This Judicial Referral Board is responsible for the referral of cases of alleged student misconduct to the Residence Hall Councils, the Judicial Board, or the Judicial Affairs Committee.

Summer discipline cases will be heard by an ad hoc committee appointed by the Chairman of the Judicial Affairs Committee. Appeals should be made to the Judicial Affairs Committee.

The Judicial Board is responsible for hearing and acting upon cases referred to the group by the Judicial Referral Board and which involve specific areas of conduct for which any student may be subject to disciplinary action and for hearing and acting upon appeals to cases heard by a Residence Hall Council. These specific areas of conduct appear on page 5. Technical aspects of the Judicial Board and its procedures are stated in the Student Government Association and Judicial Board Constitutions. In the event a student whose case was heard by the Judicial Board is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board, he may appeal the decision to the Judicial Affairs Committee.

Role of the Judicial Affairs Committee

The duties of the Judicial Affairs Committee include considering and deciding upon all cases of misconduct referred by the Judicial Referral Board. Allowable penalties include suspension and expulsion. The committee also decides upon appeals resulting from other disciplinary action. If a student questions the fairness of disciplinary action taken against him by a judicial body, he should be granted, on request, the privilege of a hearing before this Committee. Technical aspects of the Judicial Affairs Committee and its procedures are stated in its guidelines. In the event a student is dissatisfied with a decision of the Committee, he may appeal the decision to the President of the College.

Role of the President of the College

The President is included in the due process procedure for students who have violated behavioral policies of the College. He is available as a “last” on-campus source of appeal from a decision or review of the Judicial Affairs Committee.

Also inherent in the office of the President is the obligation to take whatever measures may be necessary to protect the well-being and integrity of the College and its members. Of course this obligation is reserved for emergency circumstances only.

Nothing herein contained shall be regarded as detracting from the traditional plenary powers of the President of the College and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the President of the College may on his own initiative and at his own discretion immediately and without any procedural requirements whatsoever suspend or expel the student, or otherwise suspend or terminate his right to be present on the campus or to attend classes. Such action is subject to review by the Judicial Affairs Committee, but the status of the student, pending final action, shall remain that in which he has been placed by the President.

◆ JUDICIAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

PURPOSES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. A primary function of the committee is to consider and decide upon all cases involving non-academic misconduct referred to it by the Judicial Referral Board (See S.G.A. Constitution).
2. The committee also decides upon appeals resulting from other disciplinary action, including that of the Honor Court. If the student questions the fairness of a disciplinary action taken against him by a dean, or a student judicial body, he should be granted on request the privilege of a hearing before this committee.
3. At the request of the Executive Council of S.G.A., the committee will rule upon the constitutionality of actions taken by the Student Government Association.
4. Furthermore, the committee should stay informed about disciplinary problems and make recommendations to judicial bodies and members of the administration charged with disciplinary responsibilities.

COMPOSITION OF COMMITTEE

1. The committee shall be composed of seven voting members (two faculty members, one staff member, four student members, a faculty chairperson). Student members shall not hold any elected office to the Student Government Association, membership on the Judicial Board, or membership on the Centenary Honor Court. The chairperson should have a minimum of one year's previous service on the committee. The Dean of Students shall be an ex officio member of the committee without vote, and shall function as its executive officer . . . that is, charged with the responsibility of enforcing the decision of the committee.

2. The two voting faculty members of the committee are recommended by the Faculty Coordinating Committee and are appointed by the President for terms of one academic year. Whenever possible, for purposes of continuity, faculty members will serve more than one term.
3. The four voting student members, one representing each class, are nominated by a majority vote of the Student Senate, subject to the approval of the President of the College.
4. The staff member of the committee shall be appointed by the President of the College.
5. The composition of the committee during the summer will be determined by the committee at its May meeting. The chairperson of the committee will call a meeting of the committee in the early part of May to determine who will be available for summer meetings, if needed.
6. Whenever possible, appointments to this committee are made with due consideration for the principle of separation of power as defined in the "S.G.A. Constitution."

PROCEDURAL RULES

1. Four student members, two faculty members, and the staff member must be present in order for the committee to make a decision.
2. The committee will meet in regular session once each semester to discuss procedure and campus disciplinary problems.
3. The committee chairperson or the President of Centenary College can call a committee meeting at any time either by verbal or written notice.
4. The agenda for the meeting will not be disclosed to the members in advance. Prior to each hearing, the chairperson shall ask committee members if they have been approached prior to the hearing by representatives of either side (accused or accuser) and to what extent. Persistent or inappropriate contact prior to a hearing may result in an additional violation under Obstruction of Proceedings.
5. The proceedings of the meeting are held in strict confidence.
6. The chairperson of the committee will request that two sets of minutes be prepared by a faculty/staff representative. One set of minutes will be kept in the file of the committee secretary, the other in the office of the president of Centenary College.

7. No member of the committee who is interested in a particular case in any way other than his official function as a member of the Committee shall sit in judgment during the proceedings. In the absence of one member of the Judicial Affairs Committee – either faculty or student – the accused may voluntarily waive a hearing before the full committee.
8. The committee should confirm that the accused has received in writing all charges brought against him and has had sufficient time to prepare a defense (five days minimum). The accused and the accuser may present any evidence that the committee deems pertinent and relevant to the case.
9. Both the student who is accused and the student who makes the accusation have the right to be assisted in the case by a Centenary College faculty or administrative advisor of their choice.
10. The burden of proof rests upon the persons bringing the charge.
11. The accused shall be given the opportunity to testify and present evidence and witnesses. In appeals from decisions by the Honor Court, the Honor Court will be the accuser and will be bound by provisions of Article 7 of the Honor Court. In all other cases he shall have an opportunity to hear and question adverse witnesses. In no case shall the committee consider statements against him unless he has been advised of their content and of the names of those who made them, and unless he has been given an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences which might otherwise be drawn.
12. (a) All members of the committee have the right to question the accused, the accuser, and the witnesses.
(b) The accused has the right to question the accuser and witnesses.
(c) The accused, as well as the accuser, has the right to remain in the room as long as the case is being heard and until the committee is ready to deliberate, or until the committee considers another (separate) case.
13. (a) The decision of the committee shall be based solely upon matters considered by the committee at the hearing.
(b) The committee may dismiss charges, or may assess penalties ranging from warnings through expulsion.
(c) The chairperson communicates the decision to the accused. A letter of confirmation follows.
14. The chairperson will prepare six (6) letters of response that reflect the final decision of the committee – one for the accused, one kept in the files of the chairperson, one each in the offices of the President of the College and the Dean of the College, and two in the office of the Dean of Students.

15. For the Judicial Affairs Committee to consider an appeal, the student must file such an appeal in writing with the committee chairperson within one week after the decision has been rendered by a lower body. (Appeals of decisions of the Honor Court must be made to the Dean of the College in accordance with Article X of the Honor Court Constitution.)
16. The decision of the Judicial Affairs Committee is usually considered final, however, decisions (other than Honor Court appeals) are appealable to the President of the College, or ultimately to the Board of Trustees.
17. Nothing herein shall be regarded as detracting from the President's powers as set forth in the statement on student rights and freedoms as it appears in the Student Handbook.

◆ CAMPUS PARKING POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

I. Motor Vehicle Policy

Operating a vehicle on the Centenary College campus is a PRIVILEGE granted by the College. It is not an inherent right of any faculty/staff member, student or visitor. In the interest of safe and courteous vehicle operation and parking, the College has adopted and enforces the following regulations. It is the responsibility of the driver to know, understand and follow these regulations, or be cited for any violations.

Vehicle Registration is required for any vehicle operated by a member of the College community.

Centenary College assumes no responsibility, nor creates any liability, for the care and/or protection of any vehicle, or its contents, while it is on campus.

II. Definitions

ABANDONED VEHICLE: Any vehicle parked on campus without a decal displayed and not moved for a period of seventy-two (72) hours.

HANDICAPPED AREAS: Either an actual handicapped parking space or areas that are utilized for handicapped access (ramps).

IMMOBILIZER: A device that can be attached to the wheel of a vehicle to prevent it from being moved.

LOADING ZONE: An area which has been reserved for the exclusive use of a vehicle during the actual loading or unloading of passengers or goods.

NON-REGISTERED VEHICLE: Any vehicle that is being used by a member of the College community and is not properly registered.

OWNER: The person who holds the title (or lien) to the vehicle, or whose immediate family member holds the title (or lien) to a vehicle being operated or parked on the College campus.

PARKING/TRAFFIC VIOLATION: Referred to as “Ticket.”

REGISTRANT: The person who completed and signed the Vehicle Registration Form.

SECURITY OFFICER: An employee of Centenary College charged with the responsibility for the protection of the College community and College property and the enforcement of the general rules and regulations of the College.

TRAFFIC CONTROL DEVICES: Signs, markings and devices installed by the College for the purpose of regulating, warning or guiding traffic or parking.

VEHICLE: Any motor vehicle that is used for transportation.

VEHICLE REGISTRATION: The system engaged by the College to register any vehicle used by a member of the College community. (See Part IV, Vehicle Registration and Fees).

VEHICLE REGISTRATION DECAL: Referred to as “Decal.” An adhesive decal used to identify vehicles and to insure compliance with College parking regulations, policies and practices. The decal, obtained at completion of Vehicle Registration, is good for one year, expiring on the 15th of August.

III. Moving Traffic Policies and Fines

A. Centenary College campus is a legal school zone. The speed limit is 15 m.p.h., 24 hours a day, seven days a week, regardless of whether or not school is in session.

B. Pedestrians have the right of way at all times.

- 6. Failure to obey instructions of a Security Officer.....$25.00
- 7. “Joy Riding” or “landscaping”$250.00 plus repairs to grounds and referral to the Judicial Referral Board

Note: A vehicle does not have to be stopped and a ticket issued at the time of the violation. It may be placed on the vehicle later or mailed to the registrant.

IV. Vehicle Registration and Fees

A. All faculty, staff, employees and students (full-time, part-time and graduate) are required to register their vehicles and obtain decals. Individuals may register only those vehicles to which they, their spouses, parents, or guardians hold the title.

B. Registration of a vehicle does not guarantee a parking space on campus.

C. Vehicles will be registered on a first come-first served basis in accordance with the registration cycle used by the College. Senior students have priority on Parking Lots 2 and 4.

D. Vehicles will be registered and decals obtained at the Business Office (Hamilton Hall). Students may register their vehicles during registration day at the appropriate “stop,” or at the Business Office any other day.

E. A waiting list will be maintained by the Chief of Security for those students wishing to obtain a Lot 2 or 4 decal and who are not seniors. As openings appear, those on the list will be contacted. Priority is Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen.

F. Temporary parking permits are required when a person is temporarily using a vehicle other than the one he/she has currently registered. These are available at the Dean of Students office at no cost for a maximum of two weeks.

G. Vehicle registration forms, decals and tickets are official documents of the College. Falsification of or allowing falsification of official documents subjects the individual to college disciplinary action.

H. Any vehicle with an unauthorized or altered decal may be immobilized or towed at the owner/registrant's expense.

I. Fees

1. Academic year (Fall Semester-Resident)	$25.00
2. Academic year (Fall Semester-Commuter).....	10.00
3. Graduate students.....	10.00
4. Spring Semester (Resident)	12.50
5. Spring Semester (Commuter)	5.00
6. Summer Semester ONLY (All Students)	5.00
7. Motorcycle (note 1)	5.00
8. Second Vehicle (note 2).....	1.00
9. Replacement decal	1.00

Note 1: Motorcycles are required to park in the areas set aside for them. Parking in a regular parking space may cause the registrant to be charged for the full price of vehicle registration.

Note 2: Third or additional vehicles will be charged at the cost of registering the initial vehicle.

V. Decal Display

A. The decal goes on the rear of the vehicle, passenger side. It may be on the rear bumper or the rear window. Decals will be permanently affixed to the outside of the vehicle and visible when standing behind the vehicle.

B. Registration of a vehicle is NOT complete until the decal is affixed as stated above.

C. Penalties for improper decal display are the same as penalties for parking violations.

D. ONLY the current decal will be fully displayed. Previous decals are to be removed or covered over with the current decal. NOTE: Overlapping the decals so the "Gents" logo shows is permitted.

5. Temporary permits will be taped to the inside of the rear window, passenger side, in the lower right hand corner, or as designated by the campus Security Department.

VI. General Provisions

A. Pedestrians have the right of way at all times.

B. Inclement weather, absence of a parking space or the fact that others are parked illegally are not excuses for parking illegally.

C. The registrant of a vehicle is responsible for all tickets issued his/her vehicle including those incurred by others. The driver of a non-registered vehicle is responsible for all tickets issued regardless of ownership.

D. Vehicles presenting a hazard to campus safety or bringing discredit to the college will be towed at the expense of the owner/registrator.

E. Any ticket issued by a Security Officer may be appealed. All appeals must be made within 5 days of the violation, week-ends and holidays excluded, to the Chief of Security. The right to appeal is forfeited after this period.

F. When a vehicle becomes inoperable and/or cannot be parked in a proper area, the operator must immediately notify a Security Officer. Inoperable vehicles must be removed from campus within 72 hours after notification or they may be towed at owner's/registrator's expense. An inoperable vehicle presenting a hazard to traffic will be immediately towed.

G. Abandoned vehicles will be towed at owner's expense 3 days from the date of being identified.

H. Students who fail to pay their ticket fines may be prevented from graduating, future registration and/or release of grades or individual transcripts.

I. One ticket does not necessarily mean one violation. Violations identified on the ticket may be totalled and fines charged accordingly.

J. Each semester, tickets start anew. However, any non-registered vehicle owner/driver who is identified will be required to pay for ALL accrued violations.

K. All penalties apply to faculty, staff, employees and students of the College.

L. Students who have “guests” that incur tickets may be held accountable for their fines.

M. The Chief of Security will refer student multiple offenders to the Dean of Students and may have them brought before the Judicial Referral Board. Continued infractions by faculty, staff and employees will be referred to the Dean of the College.

N. Students who fail to comply with Centenary College Vehicle Regulations will be in violation of the Student Handbook.

VII. Parking Violations and Fines

- A. Parking violations include, but are not limited to:

is in effect. Enforcement starts midnight, day before classes resume.

C. All non-registered vehicles are subject to being ticketed regardless of the parking status.

◆ SHAPING THE DRUG FREE CAMPUS

A primary concern relative to the health and welfare of all members of the Centenary College community is the prevention of the illicit use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol. A comprehensive overview related to alcohol and other drug use for students, faculty, and staff is provided. Standards of conduct and sanctions, legal implications, health risks, and on- and off-campus resources which are available for counseling, treatment or rehabilitation have been included.

Employee Policy Ensuring a Drug-Free Workplace¹

It is the policy of Centenary College of Louisiana to provide its employees with a drug-free work environment. To maintain this policy:

(1) no employee is permitted to manufacture, distribute, dispense, possess, or use an unlawful controlled substance on the property of Centenary College;

(2) any employee found in violation of Item 1 of this policy will be suspended without pay pending completion of a recognized drug rehabilitation program or terminated from employment at Centenary College if convicted under a criminal drug statute;

(3) any employee found in violation of Item 1 of this policy as a second occurrence will be terminated from employment at Centenary College; and

(4) each employee shall be made aware of this policy.

Student Policies and Sanctions Related to Alcoholic Beverages and Drugs²

The use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages in or on any Centenary College property is strictly prohibited.

The use, possession, or distribution of narcotics, stimulants, depressants, mind expanding or other dangerous drugs except as expressly permitted by state and/or federal laws is strictly prohibited.

A student accused of violating the alcoholic beverages or drugs policies will be subject to disciplinary proceedings with the guarantee of procedural fairness. Circumstances of the policy violation will affect the variance in formality with the gravity of the offense and sanctions which may be applied. Disciplinary proceedings may produce results ranging from dismissal of charges to the assessment of sanctions to include warning, probation, suspension, or expulsion.

◆ STUDENTS' RIGHTS AND RECORDS

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), Centenary College students have the right to review, inspect, copy, and challenge the accuracy of education records kept in a cumulative file by the institution. Centenary students are to be told the location of these education records and assured that non-directory information will not be released without the written consent of the student except as provided by FERPA.

A copy of "Centenary College's Written Policy of Compliance With the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, As Amended" is available upon request for student perusal in the Registrar's Office. This written policy details the location of education records, identifies which records students may and may not inspect, explains procedures for release of education records to third parties, and tells students the procedures for reviewing and challenging information in their education records.

The following information is designated as "Directory Information." FERPA permits the release of this information without a student's written consent unless the student specifically informs the college that he/she does not want that directory information released.

Category A Name, home/local address, telephone number, place/date of birth, classification

Category B Major field(s) of study, dates of attendance, class, degrees or certificates or awards received, previous colleges attended, weight and height of members of athletic teams, participants in officially recognized activities and sports

Currently enrolled Centenary students may withhold disclosure of either or both categories of information. An opportunity to withhold the information in Category A is provided at the beginning of each registration period. In order to withhold information in Category B, a student must notify the Registrar's Office in writing prior to the end of the second day of classes each enrollment period.

Once a student has withheld disclosure of his/her education records, that information will not be released to any third party in any form (except as provided by law) until the student notifies the Registrar's Office to permit disclosure or until the next registration of the student and a failure at that time to request the withholding of Directory Information. The failure of any student to so request non-disclosure of Directory Information indicates individual approval for disclosure in the judgment of the college. Once a decision has been made for disclosure/non-disclosure, that decision will be binding for a minimum of one semester's length.

Student Organizations

◆ EXPECTATIONS OF CENTENARY COLLEGE FOR ITS ORGANIZATIONS

The faculty of Centenary College in collaboration with the affected organizations has adopted the following rules and regulations to define the privileges and limitations of organizations established on campus. Any organization failing to abide by these regulations, either in letter or in spirit, will be subject to disciplinary action. The Student Services Committee shall have the power to decide when these regulations have been violated by a social organization and to determine any appropriate penalty.

For the first offense against these regulations listed below organizations are subject to forfeiture of pledging, initiation, induction of members, or social probation for one semester. During the semester immediately following the penalty period, the organizations will be on probation. A second offense during the probation period may result in an indefinite forfeiture of privileges; a majority vote of the faculty will be required for the reinstatement of these privileges.

◆ GENERAL REGULATIONS

FORMING A NEW ORGANIZATION

A group wishing to form a new organization should obtain a faculty advisor, write a constitution proposal which should then be submitted to the Student Government Association. If the SGA accepts the constitution it is then submitted to the Student Services Committee for approval. With the approval of the Committee the constitution is then submitted to the faculty. Upon faculty approval the organization is granted a probationary status of one calendar year. At the end of this time, the group should present to the SGA any revisions which they have made in the constitution and a summary of their probationary year. If the SGA, Student Services Committee and faculty approve, the group then becomes a recognized student organization.

MEMBERSHIP

Active membership shall be limited to full-time students enrolled at Centenary College.

ROSTER

The president of each organization is responsible for submitting a roster to the Office of the Dean of Students by the end of the fall semester. It is also the responsibility of each president to keep the Dean of Students Office informed of any changes or additions to the roster.

FINANCES

Contracts and assumptions of financial obligations must be approved by an alumni or faculty representative approved by the administration

FUND RAISING PROJECTS

Any fund raising project held on campus by a student organization must be approved by the Dean of Students, Business Manager and Director of Development.

Social Regulations

USE OF FACILITIES

Arrangements for facilities, including the specific details, must be made with the Business Office on an official reservation form at least seven days in advance of the date on which the event will be held. In the event that an activity is cancelled by the sponsoring organization, it is the responsibility of the sponsoring organization to notify the Business Office, and if after hours, the Security Officer on duty. The sponsoring organization is responsible and liable for college facilities and equipment during the activity. All activities should be placed on the College calendar as far ahead as possible to avoid conflicting dates and to receive maximum publicity. All organizations scheduling activities should check the calendar carefully for possible conflicts before scheduling events.

PLACE

Each organization may select whatever site desired for social functions with the following provisions:

The sponsoring organization — not Centenary College — is totally responsible for all activities held off campus.

The host organization is responsible for and liable for the conduct or happenings at off-campus events. Liability is the sole responsibility of the sponsoring organization.

GUESTS

Non-student guests may be invited by permission of the sponsoring organization. The organization assumes responsibility for the conduct of all guests.

Governance

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

(Amended 4/3/92)

Preamble: We, the students of Centenary College, in order to form an effective and efficient self-government serving the collective interests of the College community, to prepare ourselves for effective living in a democratic society, to enrich and diversify the quality of life, and to encourage self-reliance in our search for truth and justice, do establish and endorse this Constitution for the Student Body of Centenary College of Louisiana.

ARTICLE I. Senate — Legislative and Administrative Powers

A. Membership

1. Composition

The senate is composed of twenty-three members. The eighteen representatives consist of four full-time (enrolled in 12 or more hours) from each class, and two part-time (enrolled in less than 12 hours) representatives from any class. The remaining five members are made-up by executive committee of the SGA.

2. Representation

Each class is represented by four full-time students, at least one of which, but not limited to, must be a non-residential student. In the event that there are only residential candidates from a particular class, the four candidates with the highest numbers of votes are to be elected. In addition, there are two part-time representatives elected from the student body at large.

3. Qualifications

Student representatives must be undergraduate students through the term of office. These students must maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA and not be on Centenary probation of any kind.

B. Executive Committee

Members of the executive committee must meet the same qualifications as the representatives, in addition to the following requirements.

1. President

a. Qualifications

The president must be classified as a junior or senior during the academic year of office, and must have also served at least one full academic year on the SGA.

b. Duties and Responsibilities

The president serves as the chief administrative officer of the senate, an ex-officio voting member of the Board of Trustees, and as an official representative of the SGA to the college. The president presides over the senate and prepares the agenda for senate meetings. He or she is responsible for holding executive committee meetings at least bi-weekly, and for training the new president before leaving office.

2. Vice-President of Internal Affairs

a. Qualifications

The Vice-President of Internal Affairs must be classified as a junior or senior during the academic year of office, and must have also served at least one full academic year on the SGA.

b. Duties and Responsibilities

The Vice-President of Internal Affairs serves as assistant administrative officer and presides over meetings in the president's absence. This Vice President serves as parliamentarian including keeping the by-laws updated, making copies of the SGA operations manual available, and maintaining order according to Robert's Rules of Order. He or she serves as chair of all internal senate-sponsored committees and is responsible for conducting all aspects of elections according to the SGA Constitution and Elections By-laws. He or she is responsible for receiving any and all reports from the communications, entertainment, or media boards and subsidiaries. He or she is responsible for training the new Vice President of Internal Affairs before leaving office.

3. Vice-President of External Affairs

a. Qualifications

The Vice-President of External Affairs must be classified as a junior or senior during the academic year of office, and must have also served at least one full academic year on the SGA.

b. Duties and Responsibilities

The Vice-President of External Affairs serves as chairperson of the Intra-Organizational Committee and all external senate-sponsored committees. He or she coordinates all aspects of the approval process of all chartered organizations. He or she is responsible for training the new Vice-President of External Affairs before leaving office.

4. Secretary

a. Qualifications

The Secretary must be classified as a sophomore, junior, or senior during the academic year of office.

b. Duties and Responsibilities

The Secretary takes minutes at all senate meetings and sends copies to members of the senate at least one day prior to meetings. The secretary is responsible for all office work and all senate correspondence and for keeping all records of the senate. The secretary is responsible for training the new Secretary before leaving office.

5. Treasurer

a. Qualifications

The Treasurer must be classified as a sophomore, junior, or senior during the academic year of office.

b. Duties and Responsibilities

The Treasurer serves as administrator of senate funds, composed of the student activity fees, and of the SGA budget. The treasurer is responsible for prompt payment of all bills, transfers involving Senate funds, and all other financial proceedings under the auspices of the Senate. The treasurer has access to all financial records of all chartered organizations which request or receive funds from the SGA. The treasurer, on call of the senate, reports to the student body a list of senate expenditures per activity, balance sheet, and any other financial material pertinent to students' interests. The treasurer submits to incoming and outgoing Senates a list of all financial proceedings, and coordinates the budget approval process of all communications, entertainment and media boards and their subsidiaries. The treasurer is responsible for training the new Treasurer before leaving office.

C. Election Procedure

1. Time of Elections

Elections for senate officers, sophomore, junior, and senior senators, and judicial board members will be held in March of each year, as announced by the senate. Election of freshman senators, part-time senators, and judicial board members will be held in September before the fall senate retreat.

2. Vacated Offices

In case of a vacated office, positions may be filled during the general elections or a special election may be called by the senate. In case of a vacated office within two months of the last meeting of the current senate, the position may be filled with the appointment of an eligible student chosen by the senate.

3. Petitions for Candidates

Candidates for judicial board representative or class-representative senator must obtain twenty-five signature from members of their respective classes. Candidates for part-time representative senator must obtain twenty-five signatures from students of any classification. Any candidate for senate officer must obtain fifty signature from students from any class. Any undergraduate student paying a student activities fee may sign this petition. The petition, along with a certification of grade point average and class standing from the Registrar, must be turned in to the Vice President of Internal Affairs no later than the time set by senate. Petitions will be explained to candidates as they are handed out, if a candidate has a question, the student may contact the Vice President of Internal Affairs of the senate.

4. Campaigning

Campaigning may begin the day after petitions are due. Publicity for the election may consist of unlimited amounts of handouts, mailouts, newspaper advertisements, buttons, bumperstickers, posters, signs or banners. Posters may be hung on bulletin boards and walls only. No campaigning, verbal or otherwise, may be done within the building where voting is taking place while voting is taking place. All publicity must be removed within 24 hours after the notification of final results of an election. A candidate is responsible for any and all literature on his or her behalf. A candidate may not put his or her literature over another candidate's literature, nor deface another candidate's literature. Failure to comply with the established campaign regulations may result in disqualification of a candidate by a quorum vote of the Senate.

5. Write-in Candidates

A write-in candidate shall be considered an alternative to those candidates already running. Any student desiring to run as a write-in candidate must meet the qualifications of the position he or she is seeking and follow the same qualification procedures established by the Vice President of Internal Affairs and the senate, including certification of good standing and proof of class standing being submitted to the Vice President of Internal Affairs. Only the deadline and petition may be skipped. His or her name will not appear on the ballot. No campaigning, verbal or otherwise, will be allowed for a write-in candidate.

6. Ballots

The names of candidates on ballots will be arranged in chronological order of petitions received. Unless otherwise specified, the Officer candidates who do not receive the office they desired will be automatically put on the Senator ballot of their class.

7. Winning Candidates

In senate officer elections, the winning candidate will be the the candidate who receives a majority of the votes cast. In senator elections, the winning candidates will be the top four vote-getting candidates who meet the necessary qualifications. In judicial board elections, the winning candidates will be the top vote-getting candidates. Any votes case for candidates who do not meet necessary qualifications for that position will not be counted. In case of a tie, there will be a run-off.

8. Assumption of Office

After general elections in the spring, the new senate members and officers shall assume office on the second scheduled senate meeting after elections. The first scheduled meeting following elections shall be a joint meeting of the old and new members and officers; however, only old senate members and officers will be allowed to vote at this meeting. At the conclusion of this joint meeting, new members and officers will be installed by the outgoing members and officers.

D. Impeachment Proceedings

Any Senator or Officer may be removed from office by a 3/4 vote of the Senate for consistent failure to discharge duties. In order to begin impeachment proceedings for a senator, a petition calling for Senate consideration of removal must be signed by 50 of a representatives constituents. In order to begin impeachment proceedings for an officer, a petition calling for Senate consideration of removal must be signed by 100 members of the student body.

E. Quorum

A quorum consisting of at least 3/4 the voting membership of the Senate must be present at any official meeting called by the executive council before any official business may proceed.

F Advisors

There are two non-voting faculty advisors of the Senate, selected by the Senate at the beginning of each school year. No advisor is officially associated with any SGA media or judicial body.

ARTICLE II. Judicial branches of the Student Government Association

A. Purpose

The purposes of the judicial branches of the Student Government Association are to adjudicate conflicts arising from violation of College regulations, and to execute judgements of said adjudication.

B. Residence Hall Councils

1. Purpose

The Residence Hall Councils shall exist for internal regulation of residence hall life and are subject to annual review and alteration by the Senate within the guidelines of the SGA Constitution.

2. Composition

Composition and membership of Residence Hall Councils shall be left to the discretion of individual dorms.

3. Imposing of penalties

The Residence Hall Councils shall have the power to impose any penalty appropriate to minor infractions, short of restriction of campus privileges, social probation, suspension, or expulsion from the College.

C. Judicial Board

1. Purpose

The Judicial Board shall exist to hear cases involving the violation of non-academic social rules.

2. Composition

Judicial Board shall be composed of nine members; one male and one female from each class elected by their respective class, and one undergraduate student elected by the undergraduate student body to serve as representative-at-large.

3. Qualifications for members

Judicial Board members must be undergraduate students, who hold a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA, and may not be a member of any dorm council, Student Senate, the Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee, the Honor Court, or hold a Resident Assistant position.

4. Duties and Powers

The Board shall have the power to hear and act on all cases referred to it by the Judicial Referral Board, or appealed to it by a student. The power of the Board shall include the power to impose any penalty except suspension or expulsion from the College. In appellate cases, the Board shall have the power to uphold or decrease the penalty of a dorm council, by in no case may it increase the penalty. The Board has the power to adopt its own by-laws within the guidelines set forth in this Constitution, subject to Senate approval.

5. Election Procedures

All members except freshmen are elected during the Spring general election regulated by the Elections Committee, and will take office at the beginning of the next academic year. First year members will be elected in the fall SGA elections. They will take office immediately after election. Prior to the general election, all candidates must present to the Elections Committee a petition with 25 signatures from full-time undergraduate students from their class. The at-large representative must obtain 50 signatures from undergraduate students. In the case of vacancies within the Judicial Board, the Student Senate shall fill those vacancies with a qualified undergraduate student until a special election can be held.

6. Term of Office

The freshmen, sophomore, and at-large representatives will serve one-year terms. The junior representatives will serve a second year as senior representatives. A special election will be held to fill any vacancy.

7. Impeachment Procedure

Any student, including Judicial Board members, may bring before the Senate charges of dereliction of duty against any Board member. On the motion from any two Senators, the Senate will review the charges against the accused Board member, following the same rules of procedure and observing all rights of the accused as guaranteed in this Constitution. A 3/4 vote of the Senate will be necessary for conviction and removal from office of any Judicial Board member.

D. Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee

1. Purpose

The Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee's primary function is to consider and decide upon all cases involving non-academic misconduct referred to it by the Judicial Referral Board. The Committee also decides upon appeals resulting from other disciplinary action, including that of the Honor Court. If the student questions the fairness of a disciplinary action taken against him or her by a Dean or a student judicial body, he or she should be granted by request the privilege of a hearing before this Committee. At the request of the Executive Council of SGA, the Committee will rule upon the constitutionality of actions taken by the Student Government Association.

2. Composition

The Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee shall be composed of one Faculty member serving as chair, a staff member (other than the Dean of Students or the Assistant Dean of Students) to serve as recorder, the Dean of Students (ex-officio) and four full-time undergraduate students, one representing each class, to be recommended by the Student Government Association by majority vote of the Senate and appointed by the President of the College.

3. Qualifications

Student members of the Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee must be undergraduate students who hold a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA.

ARTICLE III. REGULATIONS IN THE JUDICIAL PROCESS

A. Regulations concerning procedure:

1. Rights of the accused

Before each case is heard, the accused must be informed of all rights and regulations enumerated in Article III of the Constitution and in the Constitution or by-laws of the particular judicial body. All charges and allegations against the accused must be made available to him in written form at least five days prior to the presentation of any evidence. The accused may waive this right. The accused must be allowed sufficient time to prepare a defense. In his defense the accused has the right to present any evidence or witnesses in his own behalf. The accused may (along with counsel, if desired) be present during the entire proceedings of the case, except when the judicial body confers to reach a verdict. The accused has the right to appeal to the Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee the assignment of his or her case to a particular judicial body in the Judicial Referral Board if the accused considers that assignment unjust.'

2. Procedure concerning the gathering and presentation of evidence:

Information which is not relevant to the case before the particular judicial body shall not be presented as evidence. No evidence may be admitted or considered by a judicial body the knowledge of the accused, nor without allowing the accused a sufficient length of time to prepare a defense against that evidence. No evidence may be presented as evidence which is not in written form, with the exception of oral testimony. All consultations between the accused and his or her faculty advisor, or between the accused and any administrator or faculty member acting in a counseling capacity, shall be considered privileged information, and therefore inadmissible as evidence without the express written consent of the accused.

3. Procedure concerning appeals:

Upon reaching a verdict, the judicial body shall immediately inform the accused of his right to appeal. The accused had the right to appeal any case within one week of the rendering of the previous decision to the immediately higher judicial level in the order of: Judicial Board, Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee, President of the College. Only the judicial body or person appealed to the considers the justifiability of the appeal. Permission of the Dean of Students or any other administrator is not required. The judicial body appealed from must make available to the accused, in writing, a complete and accurate record of the proceedings of his or her hearing within seven days after being notified of the appeal by the accused. The record must include: a statement of charges and allegations brought against the accused, written evidence presented during the course of the hearing, a list of all witnesses presenting oral testimony during the course of the hearing, a written statement of the body's decision. Failure on the part of any judicial body to observe any regulation of Article III shall hereby be considered grounds for appeal.

ARTICLE IV. GENERAL REGULATIONS

A. Separation of Powers

1. Regulations Concerning Student Government Association Bodies

No student may serve on more than one of the following bodies: Student Senate, Judicial Board, Judicial Affairs Sub-Committee, Honor Court, Dorm Council. No student may serve on more than one judicial body.

2. Ratification and Amendment Process

A petition signed by 20 percent of the student body shall require the Senate to hear a proposed amendment. Ratification and/or amendments must be approved by the following bodies in the following order: 2/3 vote of the Senate, majority vote of the Committee on Student Life, majority vote of those full-time undergraduate students voting in a special election. A constitution or amendment that has been appropriately approved by all bodies concerned shall become effective at the beginning of the next fall or spring semester, whichever is sooner, unless a special exception is approved by a 2/3 vote of the Senate. Each and, as the process occurs, include the date on which each body approved the proposed constitution or amendment.

◆ HONOR COURT CONSTITUTION

(Passed 5/16/77)

ARTICLE I. HONOR CODE

Each student who enrolls in Centenary College undergraduate classes during the regular academic year becomes a part of the Centenary Honor System and is responsible to the Honor Code in both day and night classes. Thus, he becomes a member of the College community.

The Honor Code of Centenary College is founded on the idea that honor is that intangible quality which, if it pervades all phases of campus life, will tend to foster a spirit of dignity and personal integrity. Inherent in the system must be the premise that students will not tolerate a violation of the Honor Code. With such a goal, the Honor System is established with the realization that honor must be fostered and not forced, and with the awareness that it will be successful only through the combined and cooperative efforts of faculty, administration and students.

ARTICLE II. GROUNDS FOR CONVICTION FOR VIOLATION OF THE HONOR CODE

Section One. Cheating on Tests and Examinations

1. Using notes, the textbook, or reference material during a test or examination, unless students are specifically authorized to do so by the teacher of the class.
2. Looking on the test paper of another student in the class.
3. Giving or receiving unauthorized aid verbally or in writing.

Section Two. Cheating on Papers

1. Plagiarism is defined as borrowing phrases, ideas, or other material (e.g., maps and charts) from any source without giving adequate credit;
2. Papers may not be proofread by anyone other than the author.
3. Papers may not be corrected by any typist other than the author.
4. No student may submit any work which he/she (or another student) has submitted for credit in any other course without permission of the second instructor.

Section Three. Failure to Adhere to Specific Requirements of Professors

Students are responsible for finding out a professor's requirements for examination, papers, written homework, lab reports, tutoring, and all other work as he relates them to the Honor Court. Failure to adhere to these requirements is a violation of the Honor Code.

Clarification and exception:

1. On papers professors may
 - a. Grant that a paper be proofread by parties other than the author.
 - b. Prescribe limitations on the sources to be used.
 - c. Make special stipulation concerning crediting of sources.
 - d. Grant permission to any student to submit any work which he or another student has submitted for credit in any other course.
2. Written homework and laboratory reports
 - a. Students may work together provided that each member of the group understands the work being done, and the instructor has authorized this procedure.
 - b. All data must be reported by the student as observed in his experiment.
 - c. Professors may
 - (1) Require that all or part of the assignment be done by each student individually.
 - (2) Require that secondary sources consulted be credited.
3. Tutoring

Students must find out from a professor what kind of help may be received from a tutor on assigned work.

Section Four. Failure to Appear.

If the accused, or a called witness, fails to appear, or fails to submit an adequate excuse to the Court, he shall receive an Honor Court Conviction.

ARTICLE III. PROCEDURE FOR EXAMINATIONS AND PAPERS

Suggestions by the Honor Court to alleviate suspicion of Honor Code violations:

1. Every effort should be made by the student to place himself in the classroom seating arrangement so as to minimize the suspicion of a violation.
2. Students should remove all notebooks, textbooks, and other written material from their desks. Only exam material should be within view.

3. Students should check with professors concerning any questions about papers.
4. Permission for combined work on projects and assignments does not necessarily imply authorized collaboration on resulting papers and reports.

ARTICLE IV. FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES:

Section One: As a member of the Centenary Community, each faculty member is responsible for reporting all cases of suspected cheating on tests, plagiarisms, and other violations of the Honor Code to a member of the Court rather than handling the case and penalty personally.

Section Two: Faculty members shall abide by the decision of the court in grading the student suspected of the violation.

Section Three: Members of the faculty who teach in the Evening Division will inform all students in any Evening Division class that they shall abide by the Honor Code in night classes.

Section Four: Faculty members shall explain all requirements for take-home tests.

ARTICLE V. ADDITIONAL FACULTY PARTICIPATION

A faculty member is urged to do the following:

1. Inform his students of regulations that apply to academic integrity in his course, and to make clear to what extent collaborative work or the exchange of aid and information (studying together, tutoring, proofreading of papers) is acceptable to him.
2. Constructively admonish a student who he feels is drifting into questionable practices, in order to improve the student's understanding of his intellectual responsibility.
3. Explain directions on examinations and inform students of his whereabouts during an examination should questions arise.
4. Instruct students to write and sign the honor pledge on each test and each piece of work that is to be done independently.
5. Impress upon students their responsibility to report all suspected instances of cheating, plagiarism, or other violations of both the Honor Code and his own class regulations.

ARTICLE VI. THE PLEDGE

Students are required to write the following pledge at the end of any examination or piece of independent work: “I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this examination (paper), nor have I seen anyone else do so.” If the student has received aid or has suspicion of a violation of the Honor code, the following clause is to be added to the pledge: “. . .except as I shall report immediately to a member of the Honor Court.”

The complete pledge will be written out in hand by the student, and should never be written until the test or paper has been completed for submission to the professor or student. Any violation shall be reported immediately to a member of the Honor Court.

ARTICLE VII. REPORTING OFFENDERS OF THE HONOR CODE

Any suspected Honor Code violation shall be reported immediately. Reports of violation of the Honor Code shall be made to any member of the Honor Court, or to the Honor Court through campus mail. All written communication must be signed, but the identity of the reporting student shall be known only to the members of the Honor Court. This Court shall be pledged not to divulge this information.

ARTICLE VII. HEARINGS

After receiving communication of a suspected Honor Code violation, the Honor Court shall have at most three (3) class days to send written notice to the defendant. Upon receiving notice, the defendant shall then have three (3) class days to prepare his case. The defendant has the right to waive his three day preparation period.

All hearings shall be closed. In order to protect the identity of the reporting party, the accuser and the accused will be called at separate times.

Except under very exceptional circumstances, decisions on cases of violations of the Honor Code shall be handed down within three (3) days of the hearing.

Students and faculty members shall appear on request at Honor Court hearings. Either the defendant or plaintiff may call witnesses in their behalf, but the Honor Court shall determine whether the defendant or plaintiff may be present during the testimony or questions of their witnesses.

Findings of the Honor Court shall be published; however, in such reports of findings, facts shall be omitted which would lead to the identification of the principals involved.

A quorum in the Honor Court shall be four members. The votes of four of the members of the Honor Court in favor of conviction shall be necessary for the conviction of an accused student.

ARTICLE IX. PENALTIES

After hearings the Honor Court shall return a verdict of “guilty” or “not guilty” and shall assess penalties for Honor Code offenses as follows.

A. For conviction on the first offense the Honor Court has an option on the following penalties:

1. Conviction, no further penalty
2. Conviction with option to redo work. Students may redo the work with no grade assessed to the original work. The new work shall be submitted to the professor for a grade. Should the student fail to submit the new work within a time limit agreed upon by the student and the professor, the student shall receive an "F" in the work.
3. Conviction with "F" work
4. Conviction with numerical value of zero (0) on work
5. Conviction with "F" in course
6. Conviction with "F" in course with recommendation to the Dean of the College for suspension for a semester.
7. Conviction with "F" in course with recommendation to the Dean of the College for dismissal from the College.

The numerical value of the "F" in the above penalties shall be determined by the teacher of the course with the stipulation that the "F" be no higher than any honestly obtained "F" on the work by any member of the class (or group of classes).

B. Any piece of work on which the Honor Court makes a ruling may not be dropped by a professor.

C. Conviction on the second offense imposes an automatic penalty of dismissal.

ARTICLE X. APPEAL PROCEDURE

Appeal from conviction of an honor code offense shall be made to the Dean of the College within seven (7) working days of notification of conviction by presenting to her the reasons in writing for requesting reconsideration of the case. If the Dean considers the request justified, the appeal will then be heard by the joint Judicial Affairs Committee, and their decision shall be final.

ARTICLE XI. ORGANIZATION OF THE COURT

Section One. Composition

The Honor Court shall consist of five members and two alternate members nominated by the faculty and student body.

Section Two. Nominations

Nominations shall be made by the student body and the faculty to fill any vacancies in the Honor Court. The Court shall then choose sufficient names from the list to fill vacancies on the Court. The new Court shall assume its duties upon election. In the event that vacancies on the Court should develop at a time other than the end of the school year, the vacancies shall be filled by the alternate members. Vacancies in alternate positions shall be filled at the discretion of the Court.

Section Three. Qualifications

The members of the Honor Court shall:

1. Be of junior or senior standing in Centenary College at the end of the semester during which the office is to be assumed.
2. Be enrolled in at least their second semester at Centenary College.
3. Not hold any elected office to the Student Government Association, membership on a judicial board, or membership on the Judicial Affairs Committee.
4. Have a grade point average of 2.5 or above at the time of election.

Section Four. Term of Office

Terms of members of the Honor Court shall be from the time of selection until graduation or voluntary withdrawal from the Honor Court of the College.

Section Five. Officers of the Honor Court and Duties

1. CHIEF JUSTICE. The Chief Justice shall be elected from the members of the Court before the end of the spring semester of each year. The term of office of the Chief Justice shall be one year. He may, however, succeed himself. The Chief Justice shall have overall supervision of the work of the Court. It shall be his duty to call sessions of Court as the need arises and to preside over the sessions.
2. ASSOCIATE JUSTICE. The Associate Justice shall be elected at the same time from the membership of the Court. He shall serve in the place of the Chief Justice in the event of the absence or inability to serve of the Chief Justice. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice, the Court may at its discretion elect a new Chief Justice or elevate and replace the Associate Justice.
3. CLERK. The Court shall at the same time select from its membership a court clerk who shall be responsible for maintaining the necessary records of the sessions. In the absence of the duly elected Clerk, the Chief Justice shall appoint one of Court to serve in that capacity.
4. The Honor Court shall select annually two members of the Centenary College full-time faculty to serve as faculty advisors. These advisors shall have no power other than to advise. They shall serve also as liaison with the faculty members who might be involved in any case, and participate in questioning according to the general policy determined by the Honor Court.

Section Six. Impeachment Proceedings

1. Any justice may be removed from office by a 2/3 vote of the entire Honor Court for

- (a) Consistent failure to discharge duties.
- (b) Conviction of an Honor Code offense.
- 2. The member under consideration for removal may not vote in the removal proceedings.

ARTICLE XII. ORIENTATION PROCEDURES OF THE HONOR SYSTEM

Section One. Responsibility for conducting all phases of Honor System orientation shall rest upon the current Honor Court.

Section Two. Presentation to Faculty

- 1. At the Pre-Registration conference of each new school year, the Faculty shall be briefed on the Honor System by the current Chief Justice of the Honor Court, or a representative of that body, given constitutions, and made aware of their several areas of responsibility.
- 2. The responsibilities and suggestions to the Faculty shall be stressed as being a part of the Constitution (see Articles IV and V).

Section Three. Presentation to New Students

The current Honor Court shall be responsible for making available an explanation of the purposes and operations of the honor system of the College to all new students, however, it is the student's responsibility to familiarize himself with the honor system.

Section Four. Presentation to Student Body

Each semester an effort shall be made by the Honor Court to impress upon the student body the purposes and mechanics of the honor system.

Section Five. The Signing of the Code Card at Registration

As a part of the registration procedure, each student will sign a statement agreeing to abide by the Honor Code of the College, which will be included on the general registration form.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENTS

Section One. Proposal

Amendments to this constitution may originate with either the Honor Court or the Student Government Association. Suggestions for amendments may be submitted to either body.

Section Two. Ratification

- 1. Proposed amendments to the Honor Court Constitution originating in the Student Government Association shall be approved by the Honor Court with a 4/5 vote. Amendments originating in the Honor Court shall be approved by the Student Government Association with a 2/3 majority vote.
- 2. Amendments must be approved by the faculty and, in a general election, by a 2/3 majority of the voting student body to become a part of this constitution. Approval may be made first by either body.

3. The amendment shall take effect immediately upon ratification.

◆ GUIDELINES FOR THE HONOR SYSTEM

1. ADVANTAGES OF THE HONOR SYSTEM

We of Centenary College are proud of the fact that our students govern their own academic performance through an Honor Code which they helped to write, and which they themselves administer.

A national survey has shown that cheating occurs more often on campuses where no joint honor system is in effect and where enforcement of honesty is left up to faculty alone. It occurs least often among students in colleges where both students and faculty participate in a functioning honor system.

Our honor system is a classic example of growing student participation in self-government and responsibility for administrative affairs on campus. The increased freedom it affords gives those who participate in it room to grow in maturity and responsibility, and to strengthen qualities of honesty and integrity.

Sharing with the student body in the observance and administering of the Honor Code also benefits the College faculty. Faculty and students become partners in striving toward a lofty goal, and their common striving builds an atmosphere of trust and confidence. Faculty members are also relieved of the necessity of filling the distasteful role of policeman.

The Centenary College honor system was developed because the students proposed the idea to the College faculty and asked that the faculty join in writing and administering a workable code. The Code was tried on an experimental basis in some departments of the College in 1953, and soon thereafter the present Honor Code was adopted as binding for all regular students of the College.

2. REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Basically the Code provides that a student will neither cheat nor will he tolerate cheating on the part of others.

If you have registered at Centenary, you have signed a pact which automatically includes you as a part of our honor system, binding you to its terms and committing you to uphold its principles and its provisions. You have agreed to present work for credit which is wholly and only your own. When exams are given or when you present written work and research papers, no professor or proctor should be required as a policeman to insure that the work is your own, although a teacher may do so in incidents of suspected violation of the Honor Code. Your own personal integrity is your proctor.

We administer the Code through a student court composed of five members and two alternates who are chosen from among nominations made by the student body and the faculty. One member is elected to preside as chief justice. At least one faculty member serves as advisor and liaison officer. The Constitution of the Honor Court provides that all violations of the Code shall be referred at once to the Court. It also provides for hearings, suitable penalties upon conviction, and appeal of conviction.

A conviction before the Honor Court for violation of the Honor Code may result in one of the following penalties: Conviction with further penalty, Honor court F on the work, Honor Court F in the course, suspension for one semester or permanent expulsion from Centenary. Every student should thoroughly familiarize himself with the Honor Court Constitution printed in the preceding section of The Centenary College Student Handbook in order to understand exactly what his responsibilities are under the Honor System.

If you suspect that a violation of the Honor Code has occurred, it is your obligation to inform a member of the Honor Court of this fact as soon as possible. Names of the members of the Court will be posted in each classroom. If you do not know any of these students, you may send written notice to the Faculty Advisor, Honor Court, through campus mail.

The Honor Court Constitution and the Honor Code are printed in full detail elsewhere in The Centenary College Student Handbook, which all incoming students are expected to read carefully. The Honor System is also explained to new students during formal orientation each fall.

3. RESEARCH PAPERS AND THE HONOR SYSTEM

Most commonly, violations of the Honor Code concern plagiarism. In the interests of clarification, these guidelines are offered.

Plagiarism in any work done under the Honor System is a violation of the Honor Code, and is a serious offense.

You will be plagiarizing if (1) you are not accurate in indicating direct quotations from any source, including textbooks, or (2) you do not completely reword when you paraphrase. Rewording includes using your own language and your own sentence structure. A paraphrase should sound like you, not like the source with the words shifted around. Both quotations and paraphrasing require documentation. Any plagiarism, intentional or not, casts doubt on the honesty of all your statements.

A Short Guide to Manuscript and Documentation Form, by Allen and Colbrunn, found under 029.6, AL53s, and the MLA Style Sheet, found under 029.6, M72s, are both on permanent reserve in the library for your reference use. These pamphlets, along with the freshman English textbook and this explanation, should indicate what is not proper credit and correct form for giving credit.

Borrowing an author's ideas and putting them into your own words is paraphrasing and requires that credit be given for the ideas by means of a footnote or other clear procedure. Neither quotation marks nor indentation is used for paraphrasing. If you present another person's ideas as your own, by not giving credit, you are plagiarizing. When in doubt, footnote!

Borrowing an author's exact words is quoting and also requires a footnote or other clear credit to the source. Quotes must be placed in quotation marks, and if the quote is long, it should also be indented and single spaced. If you quote an author and do not put the quote in quotation marks or indent, you are plagiarizing even if you do give a footnote! You are borrowing not only the author's ideas, but are presenting the words as your own. You still are not giving full credit, and thus are plagiarizing. Usually, two or more distinctive and sequential words from the source should be placed in quotation marks.

Following is a reproduction of part of page 208 of Recent American Literature by Donald Heiney (Great Neck, New York: Barron's Educational Series, 1958). Following this reproduction are examples of three students' use of this reference in research papers. Two of the students, A and B, have given improper credit and therefore are guilty of plagiarism. Student C has given proper credit.

The original passage:

Awarding of the Nobel Prize to Faulkner in 1950 has brought home to the American public the fact that in Europe he is considered the foremost living American author; today many American critics are inclined to agree in this judgment. The distinction is one to which he is well entitled. He is sometimes considered an agrarian naturalist in the manner of Erskine Caldwell; actually he is more meaningful and profound, as well as more artistically original, than any of the American naturalists with the possible exception of Hemingway. His novels are generally laid in rural settings, but the problems they treat are psychological and moral rather than physical. His great subject is the decline of the South; its economic sterility, its moral disintegration, and its struggle to resist the progressive and materialistic civilization of the North.

Student A's paper:

The awarding of the Nobel Prize to Faulkner in 1950 has brought home to the American public the fact that in Europe he is considered the foremost living American author. His naturalism is sometimes compared to that of Erskine Caldwell. Faulkner's naturalism is illustrated by his use of rural settings in his novels. His great subject is the decline of the South: its economic sterility, its moral disintegration, and its struggle to resist the progressive and materialist civilization of the North.

Student A has plagiarized both ideas and words by presenting them as his own without any footnotes at all. He has violated the Honor Code.

Student B's paper:

The awarding of the Nobel Prize to Faulkner in 1950 has brought home to the American public the fact that in Europe he is considered the foremost living American author. His naturalism is sometimes compared to that of Erskine Caldwell. Faulkner's naturalism is illustrated by his use of rural settings in his novels. His great subject is the decline of the South: its economic sterility, its moral disintegration and its struggle to resist the progressive and materialistic civilization of the North.¹

¹Donald Heiney, Recent American Literature, (Great Neck, New York: Barron's Educational Series, 1958) p. 208.

Student B has given credit for the borrowed ideas by his footnotes, but not for the words, which are also borrowed in places. Although a few words are changed, there are still complete sentences lifted intact from the original work without giving credit for the author's words. Student B also has violated the Honor Code.

Student C's paper:

Faulkner's great talent has made him "the foremost living American author" to European critics. The rural settings of many of his novels illustrate his naturalism which is often compared with that of Erskine Caldwell. The central theme of Faulkner's novels is the decline of the South.²

¹Donald Heiney, Recent American Literature (Great Neck, New York: Barron's Educational Series, 1958) p. 208.

²Ibid.

Student C has given credit for both the phrase "the foremost living American author" and for the ideas borrowed. He has given proper credit.

4. A FINAL REMINDER

If you have any questions, it is your responsibility to ask your teacher exactly what he requires in a paper that requires research or documentation. Let us remind you that this applies to all full-time and part-time undergraduate students whether in day or night classes.
